The Princess Interviews

a skit based on a study of our adoption by a loving Father-King and of Ephesians 1.

Synopsis

Five ladies are all vying for the position of Princess of the Year. Mrs. Goodly, coordinator of the contest, is looking for a woman who embodies certain qualifications. She is hoping to find that woman who can adore, adorn, admire, adhere, and adjust—but only to the right things and in the right way, with the right heart.

As Adora Darling, Jewel Shiny, Mira Div, Tyghtly Cling, and Justy Wishy show up for their interviews, the flip side of these sought after qualities quickly become glaring character defects in them, keeping any of them from being chosen.

Disappointed that none of the candidates measure up or even understand what she is looking for, Mrs. Goody gives up in frustration – until her assistant the Royal Bardess, reminds her about the only option for flawed ladies wanting to make it to "Princess Status." Will the Father-King's generous offer work for anyone? For everyone? Find out in, The Princess Interviews.
