Send your completed video in mp4 format to us via our Contact Us tab at www.playsindays.com.

Videos may not be posted elsewhere on YouTube or other social media until after January 1, 2023.

The skit script may not be altered except for the names of the characters. This means nothing is to be added or subtracted from the words in the script, but the look, sound, and feel of your video is up to you. Animation or live is allowed.

YouTube does not allow copyrighted music to be used without permission, so any music must be original or commonly used royalty free clips available such as Apple Loops.

YouTube has guidelines for all posted videos, please go to YouTube to make sure your video fits these guidelines as it will eventually be posted on our Plays in Days YouTube channel.

Prop, set, costume, make-up, hair, and visual or graphic designs are up to your creativity but must not contain anything outside the YouTube guidelines for appropriate family entertainment.

The three best videos will be recognized and their submitters rewarded prizes, but all appropriately done videos will eventually be posted by us on our Plays in Days YouTube channel over the course of the next few months.

Be sure to include a slide in your video of any credits or Thank You sentiments you would like to give including names of actors, directors, artists, musicians, or crew and also any group, team, church, club, or production company responsible for helping to produce your video.

Videos must contain a credit slide that reads:
